

BUTTE SPORTS HALL OF FAME

Class of 2026

Greg Salo

Greg Salo was an All-American football player at Butte High. He later became head football coach for the Bulldogs. Greg was a starting inside linebacker for Butte High from 1967-1969.

In 1967 his sophomore year, Salo was the starting inside linebacker on the state championship team.

He was selected second team All-State following the season. In 1968, he was the starting linebacker for the Bulldogs as they repeated as state champions. Greg was picked first team All-State following the season. In 1969, he added quarterback to his line of duties on the field.

Following the season, Salo was again picked first team All-State as a linebacker, and that was the season he took home All-American honors.

In addition to football, Salo played three years of varsity basketball at Butte High. He played in 61 games scoring 476 points for a 7.8 average. Following his prep days, Salo was a member of the UCLA football team in the Pacific 8 Conference.

He played for the Bruins before joining the Montana Grizzlies. Greg was an inside linebacker for the Grizzlies. After his playing days, Salo went into coaching.

He was a teacher, counselor and coach who impacted the lives of many. He had stops at St. Ignatius, Western Montana College, Shelby, Montana State University, Bozeman and Libby before returning to assist with the Montana State Bobcats. Salo was picked to serve as head coach of the Butte High football team in 2002. He was Butte High's head football coach for six years from 2002-2007.

LESKOVAR HONDA

◆ SINCE 1957 ◆